Lompoc, a town without a saloon, has the smallest tax rate of any municipality in the United States. Prohibition does not always prohibit, perhaps, but it always pays.

The Truckee ice palace is completed and ready for visitors from the parts of California where the sunshine is so perpetual as to be monotonous.

An attempt is being made to secure a daily mail from Elko to the Gold Creek mines, the northern part of the county.
Copper mines are daily growing in demand.
Stocks of metallic copper are steadily decreasing and the demand is in excess of the supply.

I congratulate myself upon the suppression of the revolution in Pinar del Rio says Gen. Weyler. All that now remains is for the general to imprison the leader by proxy pay off his stenographer and the last paragraph of his long ink struggle will have been brought to a brilliant close.

One of the horses owned by Sontag and Evans when they were alluding the officers, is now owned by a milkman in Oakland. It ran over and killed a child a few days ago.

The latest railroad rumor is that the Salt Lake R.R. is to be extended to Truckee for freight crew. It is also said that the roadmaster at Truckee will be moved to Winnemucca as the roadmasters divisions on the Salt Lake are already too long, the change, if made, will not affect the laying over of crew either at Winnemucca or Wadsworth.
